

The Daily Bee

OMAHA.

Friday Morning Sept. 29

Weather Report.

(The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all stations marked.)

WAR DEPARTMENT, U. S. SIGNAL SERVICE, OMAHA, SEPT. 28, 1892. (1:45 P. M.)

Table with columns: STATIONS, Temperature, Wind, Clouds, State of Sky, State of Weather.

River level: 2 inches above low water mark at Omaha, 2 feet 0 inches at Yankton, 1 mile 1/2 feet 0 inches at La Crosse, and 4 feet 8 inches at Dubuque.

LOCAL NEWS.

Chief Butler and several of the boys at work yesterday preparing to put in the floor of the new home on 10th street. The house will be ready for occupation in about thirty days, and the new home recently ordered will be put in as soon as it arrives, and if not finished in time, one of the old hove carts will be put in temporarily. As soon as the house is finished Chief Butler proposes to hold a grand opening, when all may have an opportunity to see its advantages and facilities for work work on the part of the department.

Mrs. Geyer is very sick and not expected to live.

The B. & M. rice left for their Colorado trip yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Adler will be given a reception at Standard Hall Friday evening by the club.

The chilly weather of the past few days has caused unusual activity in the coal market.

All dropped letters—that is—letters which are mailed and delivered in the city—require a two cent stamp.

Mrs. N. J. Edholm, wife of the well known jeweler, is said to be lying quite low with typhoid fever.

Omaha's champion equestrienne, Nellie Burke, was in the city Wednesday, and left to ride at Creston yesterday.

The county commissioners have contracted with Jeff W. Bedford for the winter supply of soft coal at $5.50 per ton.

In the police court yesterday there were three cases of intoxication and one of disturbance of the peace. All were sent to "the jug" in default of bail.

Fred Zimmerman vs. Belle Zimmerman is the title of a divorce suit just brought in the district court. Desertion and adultery are charged against the defendant.

All citizens having cloth to spare which would make good material for bandages, will do a kind act by sending the same to St. Joseph's hospital or to the office of Hon. John A. Creighton.

The Nebraska State Stenographers' association will hold a meeting next Monday evening. The revision of certain articles of the constitution will come up for consideration, and arrangements will also be made for the annual banquet.

It was rumored about the streets yesterday that Mr. Ledwith, ex-auditor of state, had recently died at Toronto, Canada. It seems strange that such a report should gain credence, when Mr. Ledwith knows nothing about it.—State Journal.

A young woman, who is energetic, applied to county commissioners yesterday for admission to the poor house. Uncle John Stanton is said to object in forcible terms to making a nursery of the county house, but it is not probable that his influence will prevent the county commissioners from doing a humane act.

The trial docket for the October term of the Douglas county district court has been printed, and copies are now ready for distribution to attorneys at the clerk of the court's office. The list of attorneys includes 101 names. There are 630 cases for trial, which is a much larger number than ever before. There are about thirty divorce cases on the docket.

The colored man referred to yesterday as a wife beater was Mr. Travis, the furniture keeper on 12th, near Dodge. Wednesday he turned his wife out of doors during the heavy rain and soon after was arrested, together with his servant girl, named Jackson, with whom Travis is accused of being on too intimate relations. Both parties were lodged in jail, from which Travis was released on bail while the woman, up to noon, was still in limbo.

Last Tuesday evening two young men of the Y. M. C. A. went to a cottage prayer meeting, conducted by this association, near the U. P. freight house. All went well until they started for home, after the meeting was over, when they were stopped by a man, who asked where the depot was. The young men kindly told him that if he would come with them they would put him on the road to the depot. They were asked from whence they came. After he had told them that they were from the Y. M. C. A., he threatened to kill them if they ever came to that part of the town again. He was a stout man, and had a heavy club with which he struck at the men. But they dodged his blows and fortunately no further harm was done. He said that the men made family trouble and had a mind to kill them now. Evidently some person got him to do this, or he was "porky" fully. Other parties were seen with him a moment before.

The meeting of the Omaha Egyptian club, at the club rooms, last evening was largely attended. The object was to arrange a program for the grand convalescent meeting of the entire organization, on Friday night, to sympathize with the "Lost City" in Egypt. The Turner, the Land, the E. M. A., and other societies are cordially invited to send a delegation to the meeting. The pro-

THE SUFFRAGISTS.

Lively Proceedings at the Morning Session of the Convention.

Obstreperous Males Can be Talked to Death

If They Cannot Be Convinced.

After the battle in the opera house Wednesday and a gentle repose in the arms of Morphus, the ladies of the National Suffrage association met at Boyd's opera house at 9:30 a. m., yesterday looking much refreshed.

The rain had ceased early, and by 8 o'clock the clouds began to disappear and few broken gleams of sunlight soon dried up the sidewalks. The suffragists lost none of their zeal by the skirmish with the young limb of the law last night, but on the contrary they had determination vividly portrayed upon their countenances and a relentless warfare will be waged. A slight engagement on the picket lines, instead of demoralizing their forces or making any of the army weak in the knees, had the effect of concentrating them and they now propose to rally all their forces, charge the breast-works of the enemy and hoist the black flag.

They do not alone expect to take captive all the enemy, but spike their guns and hereafter dictate the policy of this government.

A caustic editorial, criticizing not only all of the participants, but also Mr. Poppleton, aroused the blood of the speakers, and they turned their batteries mainly upon the assailant.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. May Wright Sewall.

At a few preliminary reports from standing committees were had, and further time allowed to complete others, Miss Anthony handed in letters from their sympathizers and others who could not be present from all parts of the country. Among these was one from Mrs. Caroline Briggs, of London, England, who asked that she have a cablegram sent her telling the result of the November election.

Mrs. Bones made a good report for Dakota Territory. Mrs. Sewall, of Indiana, gave a brief but favorable report of her state and the work being done. Mrs. Gouger, from Lafayette, Ind., said for the people of her state, that the democratic party had split over it while the republican party were solid for it; that the lines were drawn between the Hendricks whisky party and the sober and respectable classes. Here she took occasion to give the editor of the Herald a few cuts for his indecent reference to the women in the movement.

Thirty engagements already made in that state in behalf of the suffrage movement. That while she hates the democratic party of Indiana, she has a fellow feeling for that party in Massachusetts, as they have put a plank in their platform demanding the right of suffrage for women. Mrs. Sewall said that out of thirty-six journals in Indianapolis, one only was opposed to them.

Mrs. McKinney, of Iowa, made a favorable report, but said they wanted organization and speakers; that they have sixty-five papers that espouse their cause and seventeen that fight them, and eighteen who are neutral. Mrs. Wait, of Kansas, said she had nothing to report, that they had no state organization but one or two county societies; she said the G. W. St. John was a strong advocate of theirs and that the republican party had made it an issue in that state. Report from Massachusetts was not very favorable for effective work, but they all had papers of Ben Butler carrying through on the democratic wave. They regretted that the light in Indiana state, although floor should be claimed as an ally. But the men in that state will hardly give them the right to vote for the women are about forty thousand majority in the state.

Nothing from Minnesota save some letters.

Mrs. Minor, of Missouri, said the question in that state had been raised strongly by both men and women and especially southern women, who were afraid of their husbands. She said that the ministers who formerly denounced the movement are coming to their aid, and that Chancellor Elliott, of the Washington university, had been converted and ably espouses their cause.

Mrs. Colby, for Nebraska, made an excellent report of their work, and received a vote of thanks from the National convention for her and her co-workers valuable services rendered.

Mrs. Brooks said this was the cheapest reform ever conducted, having cost only about three dollars for each meeting held in the state, and that Mrs. Hindman had delivered seventy-five speeches during the past summer throughout Nebraska.

Mrs. Wells, of Utah, made a short written report of a highly entertaining character, which will be of interest to all our readers, as it gives the internal history of Utah in all its bearings. It will appear in to-morrow's issue.

Afternoon Session.

At 2:30 p. m. an audience of about three hundred had assembled at the opera house, when Miss Anthony called the meeting to order and read a sympathetic letter from Miss Kelly, of Pennsylvania, daughter of Judge Kelly, of national fame.

Mrs. Sewall then came forward and explained about the challenge of Mr. Hitchcock, stating that the ladies deemed it inadvisable owing to the limit of time for business and the work to be done to accept the challenge for this afternoon; that they had written him on the subject but received no reply, and they did not propose to do any free advertising for the gentleman by entering into a discussion on the subject at this time. But if an opportunity presented itself, and a time and place could be agreed upon, that they would endeavor to accommodate him as their friends. After a little cross firing between the ladies and Mr. H. Mrs. Shattuck was introduced as the first speaker. At this time a dog in

THE DOOLITTLE CASE.

The Supreme Court Affirms Her Judgment Against the Street Railway Company.

A telegram received yesterday from the clerk of the supreme court, by W. J. Connel, Esq., one of the attorneys for Mrs. W. V. Doolittle, stating that her two replevin suits with W. W. Marsh had been affirmed.

It will be remembered that in November, 1877, Mrs. Doolittle, in attempting to get off a street car at the corner of Capitol avenue and Seventh street, was severely injured and had several ribs broken, by being violently thrown against the track, in consequence of the driver carelessly starting the car, which he claimed was the result of a defective brake.

At the February, 1878, term of the district court, Mrs. Doolittle obtained a judgment against the horse railroad company for $5,000, from which judgment an appeal was taken to the supreme court, and judgment affirmed. In the meantime Mr. Marsh had a chattel mortgage executed to himself, covering all the horses and all the property owned by the company, not included in a prior mortgage given to secure the bonds of the company.

When Mrs. Doolittle's judgment was affirmed, her attorney, Redick and Connel, directed the sheriff to make a levy on the horses and property mortgaged to Marsh, claiming the mortgage to Marsh was a fraud, and was fixed up by Marsh and his attorney, Geo. E. Wright, for the sole purpose of defrauding Mrs. Doolittle, and preventing her from collecting and enforcing her judgment. As soon as the sheriff made his levy on the horses and other property, Mr. Marsh replevined the entire outfit from him, and upon final trial of the cases the jury found their verdicts in favor of Mrs. Doolittle, and judgments were entered against Marsh for over $4,000.

These judgments having now been affirmed there is nothing left for Mr. Marsh to do but to walk up to the captain's office and settle. Upon payment of the judgments in the replevin suits, there will remain a deficiency on the original judgment of over $2,000, and to realize this balance we understand Redick & Connel, as attorneys for Mrs. Doolittle, propose to commence a suit in equity to compel Mr. Marsh to account for the money and property received by him as manager of the old company, and to test the validity of the transfer of the franchise and other property conveyed to him.

Wedding Party Soreheaded.

On Tuesday evening our well known fellow townsman, Mr. Gilman B. Davis, whose place of business is on 15th street opposite the postoffice, returned from the east with his bride. The wedding took place on the 15th inst. at the residence of the bride's parents, Ironton, Ohio. Mrs. Davis is an accomplished and refined lady, very prepossessing in appearance and cultivated to win many friends in her new home where her husband's many good qualities are so well known and appreciated.

BROWN-DOUGLAS.

On Monday evening, September 26, by Rev. A. F. Sherrill, Mr. Wm. H. Brown and Miss Ellen Douglas, of this city.

A JOURNALIST JERKED.

Arrest of A. W. Sheperdson, of Wymore, for Robbing a Friend of Money and Jewelry.

About a week ago last Saturday, Mr. A. W. Sheperdson, a young man who had been employed in Omaha in various capacities in the newspaper office as typewriter, telegraph editor and reporter, came to Omaha on a short visit. He left Omaha some months ago and had located in Wymore, where he ran a newspaper for a short time, and became involved in a business difficulty. To his friends here, however, he represented that he was making lots of money and had struck a regular bonanza in that locality. While here he met an old friend, Mr. E. A. Delaurier, whose home is at Creston, Iowa, but who travels for a New York house. The two took in the town together, and on Sunday night the 17th put up at the Emmet house, Delaurier being at the time in a rather intoxicated condition and his friend probably not much better. When the former woke up from his sleep he missed a gold watch and chain, valued at $400, a diamond ring, over $200 in cash, a gold pencil and a tooth pick, and four thousand tickets on the Iowa pool line. He suspected that he had been drugged, and believed from the first that Sheperdson had robbed him. Sheperdson lingered in town until Tuesday noon when he took the train for the Iowa side and next turned up in Wymore. In the mean time Mr. Delaurier had employed Mr. E. A. McClure to look the case up and upon information obtained from Wymore Mr. McClure accompanied by Marshal Angell, went down on Wednesday and found their man there and arrested him, bringing him in on the evening train. When he was lodged in jail Sheperdson had in his possession several of the stolen articles, but the gold watch, diamond ring and the money were missing as well as the railroad tickets and these he claims he never took. He admits that the other articles were stolen from his friend, and says that when he first took them he intended to return them, but because intoxicated and was so far away from home he regained his friend's assets that was too late. Sheperdson certainly knew enough of the world to be aware of the extent of his crime and the danger he was in and the strangest part of the whole proceedings is that

THE SUFFRAGISTS.

Lively Proceedings at the Morning Session of the Convention.

Obstreperous Males Can be Talked to Death

If They Cannot Be Convinced.

After the battle in the opera house Wednesday and a gentle repose in the arms of Morphus, the ladies of the National Suffrage association met at Boyd's opera house at 9:30 a. m., yesterday looking much refreshed.

The rain had ceased early, and by 8 o'clock the clouds began to disappear and few broken gleams of sunlight soon dried up the sidewalks. The suffragists lost none of their zeal by the skirmish with the young limb of the law last night, but on the contrary they had determination vividly portrayed upon their countenances and a relentless warfare will be waged. A slight engagement on the picket lines, instead of demoralizing their forces or making any of the army weak in the knees, had the effect of concentrating them and they now propose to rally all their forces, charge the breast-works of the enemy and hoist the black flag.

They do not alone expect to take captive all the enemy, but spike their guns and hereafter dictate the policy of this government.

A caustic editorial, criticizing not only all of the participants, but also Mr. Poppleton, aroused the blood of the speakers, and they turned their batteries mainly upon the assailant.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. May Wright Sewall.

At a few preliminary reports from standing committees were had, and further time allowed to complete others, Miss Anthony handed in letters from their sympathizers and others who could not be present from all parts of the country. Among these was one from Mrs. Caroline Briggs, of London, England, who asked that she have a cablegram sent her telling the result of the November election.

Mrs. Bones made a good report for Dakota Territory. Mrs. Sewall, of Indiana, gave a brief but favorable report of her state and the work being done. Mrs. Gouger, from Lafayette, Ind., said for the people of her state, that the democratic party had split over it while the republican party were solid for it; that the lines were drawn between the Hendricks whisky party and the sober and respectable classes. Here she took occasion to give the editor of the Herald a few cuts for his indecent reference to the women in the movement.

Thirty engagements already made in that state in behalf of the suffrage movement. That while she hates the democratic party of Indiana, she has a fellow feeling for that party in Massachusetts, as they have put a plank in their platform demanding the right of suffrage for women. Mrs. Sewall said that out of thirty-six journals in Indianapolis, one only was opposed to them.

Mrs. McKinney, of Iowa, made a favorable report, but said they wanted organization and speakers; that they have sixty-five papers that espouse their cause and seventeen that fight them, and eighteen who are neutral. Mrs. Wait, of Kansas, said she had nothing to report, that they had no state organization but one or two county societies; she said the G. W. St. John was a strong advocate of theirs and that the republican party had made it an issue in that state. Report from Massachusetts was not very favorable for effective work, but they all had papers of Ben Butler carrying through on the democratic wave. They regretted that the light in Indiana state, although floor should be claimed as an ally. But the men in that state will hardly give them the right to vote for the women are about forty thousand majority in the state.

Nothing from Minnesota save some letters.

Mrs. Minor, of Missouri, said the question in that state had been raised strongly by both men and women and especially southern women, who were afraid of their husbands. She said that the ministers who formerly denounced the movement are coming to their aid, and that Chancellor Elliott, of the Washington university, had been converted and ably espouses their cause.

Mrs. Colby, for Nebraska, made an excellent report of their work, and received a vote of thanks from the National convention for her and her co-workers valuable services rendered.

Mrs. Brooks said this was the cheapest reform ever conducted, having cost only about three dollars for each meeting held in the state, and that Mrs. Hindman had delivered seventy-five speeches during the past summer throughout Nebraska.

Mrs. Wells, of Utah, made a short written report of a highly entertaining character, which will be of interest to all our readers, as it gives the internal history of Utah in all its bearings. It will appear in to-morrow's issue.

Afternoon Session.

At 2:30 p. m. an audience of about three hundred had assembled at the opera house, when Miss Anthony called the meeting to order and read a sympathetic letter from Miss Kelly, of Pennsylvania, daughter of Judge Kelly, of national fame.

Mrs. Sewall then came forward and explained about the challenge of Mr. Hitchcock, stating that the ladies deemed it inadvisable owing to the limit of time for business and the work to be done to accept the challenge for this afternoon; that they had written him on the subject but received no reply, and they did not propose to do any free advertising for the gentleman by entering into a discussion on the subject at this time. But if an opportunity presented itself, and a time and place could be agreed upon, that they would endeavor to accommodate him as their friends. After a little cross firing between the ladies and Mr. H. Mrs. Shattuck was introduced as the first speaker. At this time a dog in

THE DOOLITTLE CASE.

The Supreme Court Affirms Her Judgment Against the Street Railway Company.

A telegram received yesterday from the clerk of the supreme court, by W. J. Connel, Esq., one of the attorneys for Mrs. W. V. Doolittle, stating that her two replevin suits with W. W. Marsh had been affirmed.

It will be remembered that in November, 1877, Mrs. Doolittle, in attempting to get off a street car at the corner of Capitol avenue and Seventh street, was severely injured and had several ribs broken, by being violently thrown against the track, in consequence of the driver carelessly starting the car, which he claimed was the result of a defective brake.

At the February, 1878, term of the district court, Mrs. Doolittle obtained a judgment against the horse railroad company for $5,000, from which judgment an appeal was taken to the supreme court, and judgment affirmed. In the meantime Mr. Marsh had a chattel mortgage executed to himself, covering all the horses and all the property owned by the company, not included in a prior mortgage given to secure the bonds of the company.

When Mrs. Doolittle's judgment was affirmed, her attorney, Redick and Connel, directed the sheriff to make a levy on the horses and property mortgaged to Marsh, claiming the mortgage to Marsh was a fraud, and was fixed up by Marsh and his attorney, Geo. E. Wright, for the sole purpose of defrauding Mrs. Doolittle, and preventing her from collecting and enforcing her judgment. As soon as the sheriff made his levy on the horses and other property, Mr. Marsh replevined the entire outfit from him, and upon final trial of the cases the jury found their verdicts in favor of Mrs. Doolittle, and judgments were entered against Marsh for over $4,000.

These judgments having now been affirmed there is nothing left for Mr. Marsh to do but to walk up to the captain's office and settle. Upon payment of the judgments in the replevin suits, there will remain a deficiency on the original judgment of over $2,000, and to realize this balance we understand Redick & Connel, as attorneys for Mrs. Doolittle, propose to commence a suit in equity to compel Mr. Marsh to account for the money and property received by him as manager of the old company, and to test the validity of the transfer of the franchise and other property conveyed to him.

Wedding Party Soreheaded.

On Tuesday evening our well known fellow townsman, Mr. Gilman B. Davis, whose place of business is on 15th street opposite the postoffice, returned from the east with his bride. The wedding took place on the 15th inst. at the residence of the bride's parents, Ironton, Ohio. Mrs. Davis is an accomplished and refined lady, very prepossessing in appearance and cultivated to win many friends in her new home where her husband's many good qualities are so well known and appreciated.

BROWN-DOUGLAS.

On Monday evening, September 26, by Rev. A. F. Sherrill, Mr. Wm. H. Brown and Miss Ellen Douglas, of this city.

A JOURNALIST JERKED.

Arrest of A. W. Sheperdson, of Wymore, for Robbing a Friend of Money and Jewelry.

About a week ago last Saturday, Mr. A. W. Sheperdson, a young man who had been employed in Omaha in various capacities in the newspaper office as typewriter, telegraph editor and reporter, came to Omaha on a short visit. He left Omaha some months ago and had located in Wymore, where he ran a newspaper for a short time, and became involved in a business difficulty. To his friends here, however, he represented that he was making lots of money and had struck a regular bonanza in that locality. While here he met an old friend, Mr. E. A. Delaurier, whose home is at Creston, Iowa, but who travels for a New York house. The two took in the town together, and on Sunday night the 17th put up at the Emmet house, Delaurier being at the time in a rather intoxicated condition and his friend probably not much better. When the former woke up from his sleep he missed a gold watch and chain, valued at $400, a diamond ring, over $200 in cash, a gold pencil and a tooth pick, and four thousand tickets on the Iowa pool line. He suspected that he had been drugged, and believed from the first that Sheperdson had robbed him. Sheperdson lingered in town until Tuesday noon when he took the train for the Iowa side and next turned up in Wymore. In the mean time Mr. Delaurier had employed Mr. E. A. McClure to look the case up and upon information obtained from Wymore Mr. McClure accompanied by Marshal Angell, went down on Wednesday and found their man there and arrested him, bringing him in on the evening train. When he was lodged in jail Sheperdson had in his possession several of the stolen articles, but the gold watch, diamond ring and the money were missing as well as the railroad tickets and these he claims he never took. He admits that the other articles were stolen from his friend, and says that when he first took them he intended to return them, but because intoxicated and was so far away from home he regained his friend's assets that was too late. Sheperdson certainly knew enough of the world to be aware of the extent of his crime and the danger he was in and the strangest part of the whole proceedings is that

THE DOOLITTLE CASE.

The Supreme Court Affirms Her Judgment Against the Street Railway Company.

A telegram received yesterday from the clerk of the supreme court, by W. J. Connel, Esq., one of the attorneys for Mrs. W. V. Doolittle, stating that her two replevin suits with W. W. Marsh had been affirmed.

It will be remembered that in November, 1877, Mrs. Doolittle, in attempting to get off a street car at the corner of Capitol avenue and Seventh street, was severely injured and had several ribs broken, by being violently thrown against the track, in consequence of the driver carelessly starting the car, which he claimed was the result of a defective brake.

At the February, 1878, term of the district court, Mrs. Doolittle obtained a judgment against the horse railroad company for $5,000, from which judgment an appeal was taken to the supreme court, and judgment affirmed. In the meantime Mr. Marsh had a chattel mortgage executed to himself, covering all the horses and all the property owned by the company, not included in a prior mortgage given to secure the bonds of the company.

When Mrs. Doolittle's judgment was affirmed, her attorney, Redick and Connel, directed the sheriff to make a levy on the horses and property mortgaged to Marsh, claiming the mortgage to Marsh was a fraud, and was fixed up by Marsh and his attorney, Geo. E. Wright, for the sole purpose of defrauding Mrs. Doolittle, and preventing her from collecting and enforcing her judgment. As soon as the sheriff made his levy on the horses and other property, Mr. Marsh replevined the entire outfit from him, and upon final trial of the cases the jury found their verdicts in favor of Mrs. Doolittle, and judgments were entered against Marsh for over $4,000.

These judgments having now been affirmed there is nothing left for Mr. Marsh to do but to walk up to the captain's office and settle. Upon payment of the judgments in the replevin suits, there will remain a deficiency on the original judgment of over $2,000, and to realize this balance we understand Redick & Connel, as attorneys for Mrs. Doolittle, propose to commence a suit in equity to compel Mr. Marsh to account for the money and property received by him as manager of the old company, and to test the validity of the transfer of the franchise and other property conveyed to him.

Wedding Party Soreheaded.

On Tuesday evening our well known fellow townsman, Mr. Gilman B. Davis, whose place of business is on 15th street opposite the postoffice, returned from the east with his bride. The wedding took place on the 15th inst. at the residence of the bride's parents, Ironton, Ohio. Mrs. Davis is an accomplished and refined lady, very prepossessing in appearance and cultivated to win many friends in her new home where her husband's many good qualities are so well known and appreciated.

BROWN-DOUGLAS.

On Monday evening, September 26, by Rev. A. F. Sherrill, Mr. Wm. H. Brown and Miss Ellen Douglas, of this city.

A JOURNALIST JERKED.

Arrest of A. W. Sheperdson, of Wymore, for Robbing a Friend of Money and Jewelry.

About a week ago last Saturday, Mr. A. W. Sheperdson, a young man who had been employed in Omaha in various capacities in the newspaper office as typewriter, telegraph editor and reporter, came to Omaha on a short visit. He left Omaha some months ago and had located in Wymore, where he ran a newspaper for a short time, and became involved in a business difficulty. To his friends here, however, he represented that he was making lots of money and had struck a regular bonanza in that locality. While here he met an old friend, Mr. E. A. Delaurier, whose home is at Creston, Iowa, but who travels for a New York house. The two took in the town together, and on Sunday night the 17th put up at the Emmet house, Delaurier being at the time in a rather intoxicated condition and his friend probably not much better. When the former woke up from his sleep he missed a gold watch and chain, valued at $400, a diamond ring, over $200 in cash, a gold pencil and a tooth pick, and four thousand tickets on the Iowa pool line. He suspected that he had been drugged, and believed from the first that Sheperdson had robbed him. Sheperdson lingered in town until Tuesday noon when he took the train for the Iowa side and next turned up in Wymore. In the mean time Mr. Delaurier had employed Mr. E. A. McClure to look the case up and upon information obtained from Wymore Mr. McClure accompanied by Marshal Angell, went down on Wednesday and found their man there and arrested him, bringing him in on the evening train. When he was lodged in jail Sheperdson had in his possession several of the stolen articles, but the gold watch, diamond ring and the money were missing as well as the railroad tickets and these he claims he never took. He admits that the other articles were stolen from his friend, and says that when he first took them he intended to return them, but because intoxicated and was so far away from home he regained his friend's assets that was too late. Sheperdson certainly knew enough of the world to be aware of the extent of his crime and the danger he was in and the strangest part of the whole proceedings is that

FOR RENT—Furnished nice large south front room, 1504 Farman street. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms at 514 south 14th street, corner of 15th and 16th streets, with 3 bedrooms south of Farman St. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—New cottage six rooms, one block west of 4th and red car line. $15 a month. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—Home of 4 to 6 rooms. Full bath and (3) gas. 15th and Douglas. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—Furnished room at 514 and 15th street, between Howard and Jackson, west side. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—A house of three rooms. Inquire N. W. Cor. 14th & Jones. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—House of 5 rooms with kitchen, pantry and closet. 1181 Sherman avenue, near U. P. depot. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—A small house in Kelso's addition. Inquire at Edholm & Kelso's. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—Furnished and unfurnished rooms at 1110 Jackson St. between 14th and 15th. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—A store in Balconic block, on 16th street, near Davenport. St. D. D. Balconic. 517-1/2

FOR RENT—Six business lots at the corner of 16th and Davenport streets, also other vacant lots. Also a few residences. Inquire on premises. 44-1/2

FOR RENT—Large offices on Farman street. Apply to John H. Lehmann & Co. 47-1/2

FOR RENT—Furnished or unfurnished. A bed with toilet, a 475, corner 19th and California Sts. Inquire Haller. 405-1/2

FOR RENT—A furnished and unfurnished room, together, pleasant view, corner 14th and Howard streets. Inquire at 14th and Howard. 405-1/2

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms at 1717 Cass St. bet. 17th and 18th. 406-1/2

FOR RENT—Handy nicely furnished parlor. A nice smaller room. Inquire at 2018 Cass street. 406-1/2

FOR RENT—Grocery store, cor. 16th street and Capital avenue. Apply on premises. 405-1/2

FOR RENT—An elegantly furnished front room, one block from U. P. or D. street, head of 17th, strict in advance. Address a "Gid" care of B. O. Co. 405-1/2

FOR RENT—A room for rent, each room for a term of years, at Terrace Drive. Plans adjoining bathroom. Rent for the month $5.00. Also a few rooms for rent. Inquire at 17th and Douglas. 405-1/2

FOR RENT—A well paying business, centrally located. Good chance for investment. Rent for $100 per month. Inquire at 17th and Douglas. 405-1/2

FOR RENT—Two new dwellings on two other dwellings in desirable locality, by McKean No. 1614 Douglas street. 517-1/2